

WaltzPlay FALL RETREAT

October 31 – November 2, 2008

Joan Walton – Vintage dance teacher and choreographer – Joan has taught classes in Ragtime, 1920s, 1930s and 19th century dance at vintage dance workshops across America. The summer of 2008 will find her teaching at Stanford's dance weekend and the Newport vintage dance week. Joan is Assistant Director and dancer with Richard Power's Flying Cloud Vintage Dance Troupe for 10 years. As a teacher, her strength lies in her ability to communicate movement concepts to all levels of learners with energy, humor and interest.

Jodi Fleischman – Jodi is an award winning dancer and performer. Known for her warm and playful teaching style, Jodi loves sharing her passion for all things dance -- over 17 years now! Schooled in African dance, Jodi became a Pacific Northwest Grand Lindy Hop Champion. She then studied Salsa in New York, Los Angeles, Puerto Rico and Cuba. Jodi's current obsession is Waltz and Nightclub Two-step which she shared at Stanford's Waltz Week.

Saturday Night Masked Ball

A masked ball will be hosted Saturday night with light snacks at the break. Masquerade attire is admired, but not required.

Class Offerings

We are fortunate to have two dance halls for lessons so this year two tracks of classes are offered. A sampling of the styles of dance offered this year are:

- ◆ Cross-Step Waltz – intro and variations
- ◆ Latin Fusion Waltz – intro and variations
- ◆ Smooth Jazz Era, Ragtime and Hesitation Waltz
- ◆ Rotary Waltz - variations
- ◆ East Coast Swing Styling
- ◆ 20s Charleston
- ◆ Salsa – bridging into Latin Fusion Waltz
- ◆ Rhumba
- ◆ Night Club 2 Step

 (see website for more details and updates)

Location

The Georgia FFA-FCCLA Center is a camp and conference center situated on over 500 acres near Covington, GA and easily accessible from Atlanta. The facility is surrounded by a beautiful scenic setting of wooded area and a lake. The trees should be bursting with color during this fall weekend.

Lodging & Meals

Three styles of lodging are available on-site (hotel, semi-private and bunk) in heated and air-conditioned buildings. Meals are provided on-site and can accommodate vegetarian attendees.
